DS-160 form · Generated on November 13, 2026

See how a fictional father from Brazil on a family holiday in Florida answered the DS-160, including his national ID number, his job and income, and his wife and son as travel companions. Know what the form asks before you start your own.

This is a fictional example for educational purposes, not an official or pre-approved application. Your DS-160 answers must reflect your own circumstances. Do not copy the sample answers unless they are independently true for you.

Before you start: information you'll want ready

The form will ask for

- Your passport
- Your CPF, for the national identification number
- Your travel dates, your arrival and departure cities and the address where you will stay
- Your wife's full name, date and city of birth
- Your employer's name, address and phone, your start date and your monthly income
- Your previous employer and your university, with addresses and dates

Helpful to have nearby

- Your wife's and son's passports, to copy their names for the companions page
- Your earlier supervisor's full name
- Your social media usernames from the last five years
- A recent photo that meets the U.S. visa photo rules

Questions applicants commonly get stuck on

How this fictional applicant answered, why, and what to check for your own form. Answer for your own situation, which may differ.

2.4 National Identification Number — 39264017851

Why Rafael gives his CPF, the number Brazil uses to identify each person, typed as digits only.

For your application Copy the number from your document rather than from memory. If your country issues no such number, tick Does Not Apply.

3.2 Have you made specific travel plans? — Yes

Provide a complete itinerary for your travel to the U.S.

MIAMI

Why The family's dates and cities are set, so he answers Yes, arriving in Orlando and leaving from Miami. He leaves the flight numbers blank because the form asks for them only if known.

For your application Check that the dates and cities match on every family member's form. If nothing is booked yet, answer No and give the dates you expect.

See the DS-160 for Lucas: B1/B2 DS-160 for a child (Brazil)

The form asks for the number your country uses to identify you. Rafael enters his CPF, as digits only, without the dots and dash.

Do my wife and son need their own forms?
Yes. Every applicant needs their own DS-160 and confirmation number, children included. His son Lucas's form is also a sample.
Official source travel.state.gov

Can I pay for the whole family's trip?
Yes. On your own form choose Self. On your child's form, name yourself as the payer, with Parent as the relationship, as Rafael does on Lucas's form.

Do I need flight numbers to answer Yes to travel plans?
No. The flight fields are marked if known. Rafael answers Yes with his dates and cities and leaves the flight numbers blank.

My son's surname is different from mine. Is that a problem?
The form does not need family surnames to match. Enter each person's name as it is in their own passport, as Rafael lists his wife and son as Silva Oliveira.
