DS-160 form · Generated on November 13, 2026

See how a fictional German production manager sent to her employer's U.S. plant answered the DS-160 and every E-Visa supplement page, including the employee visa type, the parent company's investment and the colleague she replaces. Know what the form asks before you start your own.

This is a fictional example for educational purposes, not an official or pre-approved application. Your DS-160 answers must reflect your own circumstances. Do not copy the sample answers unless they are independently true for you.

Before you start: information you'll want ready

The form will ask for

- Your passport, and your birth name if it differs from your name now
- Who owns the U.S. company, with each owner's nationality and percentage
- The parent company's investment in the U.S. business, split into cash, inventory, equipment, premises and other
- Staff numbers by nationality and level for this year and next, and the names and U.S. status of key staff
- Your present job, your years with the company and your degree
- Your U.S. title, duties, salary and benefits, and who you replace, if anyone

Helpful to have nearby

- The dates and lengths of your earlier U.S. trips
- The U.S. company's registration number, address, phone and fax
- The name and position of the company officer responsible for the application
- A recent photo that meets the U.S. visa photo rules

Questions applicants commonly get stuck on

How this fictional applicant answered, why, and what to check for your own form. Answer for your own situation, which may differ.

3.1 Purpose of Visit

Purpose of Trip to the U.S.	TREATY TRADER OR INVESTOR (E)
Specify Visa	EXECUTIVE/MGR/ESSENTIAL EMP (E2)
Has the principal Treaty Trader/ Investor already been issued a visa?	No

Why Julia Katharina is not the investor: her employer in Germany owns the U.S. company. She goes as one of its managers, so her visa type is Executive/Mgr/Essential Emp (E2), not Treaty Investor (E2).
For your application Choose Treaty Investor only if the investment is yours. If a company sends you to work for its U.S. business, choose the employee option for E-2, or for E-1 if the business is a trading company.

24.1 Type of Applicant — MANAGER
Why She leads 85 people in her present job and will direct production in the U.S., so her applicant type is Manager.
For your application Pick the type that describes the U.S. job you are going to, and make the duties you list show it.

20.2 Are There Any Foreign Entities (Corporation, Partnership, etc.) Associated with the U.S. Business? — Yes

Foreign Entities

Name of Foreign Entity	Country/Region of Origin (Nationality)	Percent of Ownership
HALDENWANG FERTIGUNGSTECHNIK GMBH	GERMANY	100

20.3 Are There Any Foreign Individual Owners of the U.S. Business? — No

Why Haldenwang Fertigungstechnik GmbH in Reutlingen owns 100% of the U.S. company, so there is one company owner and no individual owners: the U.S. business is wholly German-owned.

For your application List every company and person that owns the U.S. business, with their nationality and share, and check the shares add up to 100.

Why She takes over as director of production from Tobias Reinhardt, a German E-2 manager going home, so she answers Yes and gives his visa details. He is also on the list of key staff.
For your application Answer Yes only if you take over from someone already working there, and get their visa type and issue date from the company.

1.4 Have you ever used other names (i.e., maiden, religious, professional, alias, etc.)? Yes

Provide the following information:

Why She lives on Gartenstraße in Tübingen. The form takes only the letters A to Z, so she wrote GARTENSTRASSE and TUEBINGEN.
For your application Write ä, ö and ü as AE, OE and UE, and ß as SS, the way German spells them without those letters.

Common questions about this example

Do my husband and daughter need their own DS-160?
Yes. Every applicant needs their own DS-160, children included. Julia Katharina lists her husband and daughter as travel companions, and each of them has a form of their own.
Official source travel.state.gov

Can I keep using ESTA instead?
Not to live and work in the U.S. The Visa Waiver Program covers visits of up to 90 days for business or tourism. Working at a U.S. company for several years needs a visa such as the E-2.
Official source travel.state.gov

Who has to be German, me or the company?
Both. The State Department's E visa page says an employee must have the same nationality as the treaty company employing them, and that at least half of the business must be owned by nationals of the treaty country. Julia Katharina and the company that owns the U.S. business are both German.
Official source travel.state.gov

I am not the investor. Why does my form ask about the investment?
The E-Visa pages describe the business behind every E-1 and E-2 application, the employees' included. The company or its attorney usually has the figures; check the answers with them before you sign.
