DS-160 form · Generated on November 13, 2026

See how a fictional Nigerian graduate going to a U.S. master's program answered the DS-160, including her SEVIS ID and school, her father paying, and her contacts at home. Know what the form asks before you start your own.

This is a fictional example for educational purposes, not an official or pre-approved application. Your DS-160 answers must reflect your own circumstances. Do not copy the sample answers unless they are independently true for you.

Before you start: information you'll want ready

The form will ask for

- Your passport
- Your I-20, for the SEVIS ID, the school's address and your course
- Your father's name, phone, email and address, as the person paying
- Your employer's address and phone, your start date, duties and monthly income
- Two people at home who know you, such as a lecturer and a manager, with their contact details
- Your schools since secondary school, with addresses and dates

Helpful to have nearby

- Your NYSC posting letter or certificate, for the dates and your supervisor's name
- Your school's international office address, phone and email
- Your social media usernames and any other email addresses from the last five years
- A recent photo that meets the U.S. visa photo rules

Questions applicants commonly get stuck on

Can my father pay for my studies?
Yes. Choose Other Person as the payer and give his name, phone, email, address and relationship to you, as Chidinma Adaeze does for her father. The DS-160 asks for no bank details, but the officer at your interview may ask how your studies will be paid for.
Official source travel.state.gov

Should I choose Student as my occupation?
Only if you are studying now. Chidinma Adaeze has graduated and works in Lagos, so she gives her job. If you are still at university, choose Student and name your university.

Do I need a flight booked before I apply?
No. She answers No to specific travel plans and gives the date she expects to arrive and how long she will stay. You do not need a ticket to fill in the DS-160.

Do I list a university email I no longer use?
Yes, if you used it in the last five years. The form asks for every other email address from that period, so Chidinma Adaeze lists her old university one.
